

Welcome to

Bracewell Gardens

Bracewell Gardens is a fantastic new development in the picturesque town of Earby, just outside the stunning Yorkshire Dales. The development is situated right in the heart of the town, with its bustling High Street filled with independent cafes and convenience stores just around the corner. With stunning views and a fantastic location, Bracewell Gardens is the perfect place for first-time buyers and second steppers alike.

Earby is located on the A56, linking the development with the M65 and the wider region

The town's high street is less than a two-minute walk and boasts a selection of independent stores, eateries and a Co-op supermarket

The border of the striking Yorkshire Dales National Park is a 15-minute drive away

Earby Springfield Primary School is just half a mile from the development
